The Pipes and Drums of the Jersey Shore - June 2020

The band continues to support the club at some of the recent food deliveries by performing for our front line workers at various local places and assisted living facilities.

It's been a long time since we had a rehearsal together in person. Hopefully things will open up soon and we can get back to some semblance of normalcy.

We are moving forward and just started working on new tune, Leaving of Liverpool. This will be a challenge to learn until we get together again. We are up to the task and I am sure this tune will become a band favorite in the near future.

Remember: many of our brothers are still working as essential employees all over the area. Show your support for them when possible.

We continue to make the best of a bad situation. It's what we do!

Yes, even in the midst of covid-19, today – right now - can be the day that you will always remember when you decided to learn to play bagpipes or drums!

What are you waiting for??????

Students are currently learning to play! They heard the Pipe and Drums calling and are well on their way to becoming pipers and drummers!

Maybe you know how to play already and want to get back into it.

Today can be the day you will always remember when you got back into playing again!

Learning how to play bagpipes or drums is a great way to be involved with the band, club, your Irish Heritage and of course to do something fun!

Give me a call (732) 685-9232, email me or the band!

Our email is band@jspipesanddrums.com which can be accessed by visiting our website at www.jspipesanddrums.com for more information to join or hire us. You can talk to me or any other band member for information.

At this time we are not holding rehearsals or lessons in person. We can have a lesson over zoom or skype. Please contact me (info is above and below) if you are interested. We are taking requests to perform on a case by case basis based on availability. Please contact our Band Manager Mark Mastowski – info is below

We perform over 80% of the time for charities. The requests vary from a lone bagpiper to a small group or the entire band performing for local fundraisers, events and parades throughout the year from club members and the community. In addition, we perform at quite a few club events annually.

If you wish to have the band, small group or bagpiper perform for just about any event or perhaps perform in your living room or backyard BBQ to let those neighbors know your proud of your Irish Heritage, please let our Band Manager Mark Mastowski (732) 233-6136 or anyone in the band know

We do our best to accommodate all requests. Please realize that Band Members, just like you and everyone else, have family, job commitments and other obligations along with circumstances that come up (some of which are beyond our control) that makes it impossible for us to accommodate all requests.

If anyone that has pictures or videos of the band, please post to our facebook page and/or email to us band@jspipesanddrums.com, thank you!

Slainte!!

Irish History # 72

Michael Collins Avenges Tom Clarke's Humiliation at the Conclusion of the Rising

The Irish War of Independence was waged in a ruthless and bloody fashion a century ago. In June 1920, Michael Collins fulfilled a pledge he made to himself four years earlier on the heels of the Easter Rising.

After Padraig Pearse surrendered to British General William Lowe on the Rising's sixth day, rebel prisoners were detained overnight on the grounds of Rotunda Maternity Hospital in Dublin. Collins was one of them. Some British soldiers beat and abused prisoners held there, including rebel leaders Tom Clarke and Sean MacDiarmada.

According to Tim Pat Coogan, the conduct of British Captain Percival Lea Wilson stood out as particularly savage. He ordered all prisoners needing to relieve themselves to do so where they sat on Rotunda grounds. MacDiarmada suffered from polio and needed a cane to walk. Wilson took that and beat MacDiarmada with it. Wilson also had Clarke - a 58 year "old Fenian" - stripped naked. Clarke had a bandaged bullet wound. Wilson had the bandage torn-off during the stripping. He also ordered Clarke beaten. Collins spent the night trying to comfort Clarke.

Pearse and Clarke, along with Tomas MacDonough, were the first of the Rising's leaders to be executed at Kilmainham Jail. MacDiarmada was executed with James Connolly nine days later. During that short timeframe, fifteen rebel leaders, including the seven who signed the Proclamation of the Irish Republic (Pearse, Clarke, MacDonagh, Joseph Plunkett, Eamonn Ceannt, Connolly and MacDiarmada), were court-martialed, sentenced to death and shot by a firing squad.

The British hoped these killings would close the chapter on the Easter Rising by deterring further acts of rebellion. But the quick executions had the opposite effect. They hardened the Irish populace against the British and in favor of independence. "Home Rule" for Ireland was no longer enough. In this way, the Rising served as the beginning of a war for independence from Great Britain. That dream would be realized nearly six years later.

For Collins, the long, drizzly hours the rebels spent on the hospital grounds was a night to reamember. Not just because the Rising had failed, but also because of Wilson's mistreatment of Clarke and MacDiarmada.

Wilson, who joined the British Army in World War I (WWI), was stationed in Dublin after being wounded in battle. He was there at the time of the Rising. After WWI, he served as a Royal Irish Constabulary (RIC) Inspector in Co. Wexford. Collins found out and plotted retribution.

Collins sent two members of his "Intelligence Squad" - Liam Tobin and Frank Thornton - to Wexford. They, along with three others, waited for Wilson as he walked home one evening from a RIC barracks. The five were there to carry out Collins' order to kill Wilson. The men stood around a parked car with its hood up. They shot Wilson as he passed-by. Although hit by the initial gunfire, Wilson tried to get away by running up the street. He was felled by additional shots. Tobin and Thornton walked-up to Wilson's body and made sure he was dead. He had been shot seven times.

Word about Wilson's death got back to Collins in Dublin that evening. Irish Central News reported that Collins reacted to the news with "joy" and told those with him "well we finally got the bd." In Collins' view, he had served a dish of "just deserts" to Wilson and settled the score.

Collins re-opened the book on Wilson's heartless behavior at the hospital four years earlier. And, in having Wilson killed, Collins closed it with an exclamation point!

"Go dti go mbuailfimid le cheile aris, go bhfanfaidh sibh go leir slan sabhalte." (Until we meet again, may you all remain safe and well.)
